

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE A28

THE WASHINGTON POST
8 November 1981

AROUND THE WORLD

Nicaraguan Paper Names "Spies"

MANAGUA, Nicaragua — A progovernment newspaper published the names of 13 U.S. Embassy officials it said were spies for the Central Intelligence Agency, and the United States issued a "strong verbal protest."

An embassy spokesman said charge d'affaires Roger R. Gamble delivered the protest to acting Foreign Minister Nora Astorga, calling the publication by El Nuevo Diario an "act of provocation."

STAT